30	Ordering Bank – BIC	(Non CBA Payment Requests only) Specify the BIC of the bank where the debit account (field 7) is held.

1.2 File Format Rules

No.	Rule Description
1	Each transaction in a file: • must be a one debit / one credit transaction; • can be an IMT, Priority Payment or Non CBA Payment Request (i.e. payment types can be mixed in a file).
2	Each transaction is separated by a CRLF (Carriage Return and Line Feed) character. Do not insert a CRLF character at the end of the last record in a file. It will create an additional blank record which will result in a warning message: "A formatting error has occurred for 1 row/s. Please ensure the row contains 27 fields."
3	Each file can contain up to 350 transactions.
4	Each field in the transaction must end in a comma, except the last field.
5	Unused fields must be included in the file (i.e. ,). This includes fields that are not applicable to the payment type.
6	Each numeric (N) field can contain: 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Note: For amount fields a decimal point is also allowed.

7	Each alphanumeric (AN) field can contain: A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z a b c d e f g h i j k l m n o p q r s t u v w x y z 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Space = HEX 20 Hyphen = HEX 2D Apostrophe = HEX 27 Note: The first character in an alphanumeric field must be A to Z, a to z, or 0 to 9.
8	Each alpha (A) field can contain:
	A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z a b c d e f g h i j k l m n o p q r s t u v w x y z
9	Country codes and currency codes must be upper case characters.
10	Ensure that a comma is not included within a field, e.g, "Invoices 20061234, 20061235". Ensure that the ampersand character ("&") is not used at all.
11	IMT or Non CBA payment request – Intermediary Bank (fields 10-13) – if payment through an intermediary bank is required, the final payment details must contain a SWIFT BIC code in field 10. This can either be populated directly in the import file, or other detail provided in fields 10-13 to allow a manual search in CommBiz to locate the appropriate SWIFT BIC.
12	IMT or Non CBA payment request – Beneficiary Bank (fields 14-17) – generally, the most unique piece of information to identify the beneficiary bank is the SWIFT BIC code. However, some banks require the branch name to be quoted as well. The SWIFT BIC can either be populated directly in the import file, or other detail provided in fields 14-17 to allow a manual search in CommBiz to locate the correct bank.

4. Appendix C – Locate or Verify a SWIFT BIC Code

SWIFT is the industry-owned co-operative supplying secure, standardised messaging services to financial institutions worldwide. SWIFT members are identified by a Bank Identifier Code (BIC). To find a SWIFT BIC, or to verify an existing BIC, go to the following web page:

<https://wise.com/gb/swift-codes/bic-swift-code-checker>

Type in the details to search for and click on “Search”. The “Country name” field is not usually required unless the city name being searched for could exist in more than one country. In this example the search is for the SWIFT BIC for CIMB Bank, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia:

The screenshot shows the Wise website's SWIFT Code Checker interface. The header includes the Wise logo, navigation links for 'Personal' and 'Business', and utility links for 'Money transfer', 'Multi-currency account', 'Help', 'Log in', and 'Register'. Below the header, there are links for 'Swift/BIC', 'Search by bank', 'Browse by country', and 'Check a code'. The main heading is 'SWIFT Code Checker.' followed by a subtext: 'SWIFT/BIC codes always follow a set format. This means we can tell if yours is valid or not, and show you what each part of it represents.' A central white box contains a 'Check a SWIFT code' section with a question mark icon. It prompts the user to 'Enter a SWIFT/BIC to check it's correct and to find out which bank it belongs to.' Below this is a text input field labeled 'Enter a SWIFT code' containing the placeholder text 'AAAA-BB-CC-123'. At the bottom of the box is a blue button labeled 'Check SWIFT code'.

The search results have returned a SWIFT BIC code of CIBBMYKLXXX

This SWIFT looks right.

If you're using a bank to send money to this code, remember to check it with the bank or recipient. We can't tell you if it's real, or if it's the right SWIFT code for a particular account.

	CIBBMYKLXXX
Bank name	CIMB BANK BERHAD
Swift code	CIBBMYKLXXX
Bank address	MENARA CIMB, FLOOR 13, 2 JALAN STESEN SENTRAL, KL SENTRAL
City	KUALA LUMPUR
Country	Malaysia

Compare prices for sending money abroad

Use Wise for cheaper international bank transfers.

Wise is cheaper and faster than most banks – and creating an account only takes a few seconds.

Send money Receive money

A SWIFT BIC code is comprised of three or four segments. Using CIBBMYKLXXX as an example, these are:

CIBB	- 4 character bank code
MY	- 2 character country code
KL	- 2 character city code
XXX	- 3 character branch code (optional)

SWIFT BIC codes can be quoted without the “XXX” at the end. The “XXX” indicates that the BIC code is valid for all branches of that bank in that region or country.

The 8-character BIC code is the minimum that must be used. If a branch code is quoted in the fourth segment, this should be used if appropriate.

This code can be used in fields 10 or 14 of an IMT payment in the CommBiz import file.

5. Appendix D – Check an IBAN (International Bank Account Number)

An International Bank Account Number (IBAN) is an initiative of the European Committee for Banking Standards to facilitate the automatic processing of cross-border credit transfers. It was later adopted by the International Standards Organisation (ISO). Since 1st January 2007 the IBAN of the beneficiary and the SWIFT BIC of the beneficiary bank are mandatory in payments to a bank account in the European Union (EU).

If you are paying funds to a counterparty in one of the EU countries, it is their responsibility to advise you their IBAN and the SWIFT BIC of their bank. These details should be quoted on letterheads and invoices from your counterparty, if not you will need to obtain these details from them prior to making a payment.

An IBAN is a series of alphanumeric characters (maximum of 34) that uniquely identifies an account held at a bank anywhere in the world. It contains an ISO country code, two check digits and the basic bank account number of the account. The banking industry in each country in the EU has specified the length and composition of the IBAN for their country.

When an IBAN is printed on paper (e.g. letterheads and invoices) it is normally shown split into groups of four characters for easy recognition. When used electronically (e.g. in a payment message) it is a single string without spaces, as per the following samples:

France - on paper FR14 2004 1010 0505 0001 3M02 606

- electronic FR1420041010050500013M02606

Netherlands - on paper NL91 ABNA 0417 1643 00

- electronic NL91ABNA0417164300

A bank in Australia cannot provide you with the IBAN of the counterparty you are paying, nor advise if the IBAN quoted is correct. Currently, bank systems in Australia can only check that an IBAN quoted is the correct length for the country the payment is going to.
